1. Bob Amory telephoned in his capacity as the Commanding Officer of the Army Reserve Unit and as a Deputy Director to protest the cancellation of courses for reserve officers [REDACTED] I told him that I did not know all of the facts with regard to this matter but would look into it and be in touch with him again.

2. At the Deputies' Meeting:

a. I advised the Director that the recently enacted pay increase would cost us about [REDACTED] which presumably would come out of our Reserve.

b. I reported to the Director on the status of our Contingency Reserve as follows:

Started Fiscal Year 1960 with Withdrew

Recoveries from prior years

f. I discussed the question of whether we should advise the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization that we were going to go along with the Government program in the hardening of emergency relocation sites or "go it alone." It was agreed that we would advise OCDM that as of now we would go along with their program. (I advised [REDACTED] of this and he is to relate it to OCDM.)

4. Matt Baird reported that [REDACTED] advised him that Dick Bissell was reluctant to have us run the [REDACTED] and preferred to have it in Washington. Dick requested that I raise this for discussion at a Deputies' Meeting. Matt recommended that if we couldn't get DD/P to [REDACTED] for this course then we should run it for DD/I and DD/S alone.
